25X1

Between 9 and 18 March 1952, repair work was being done on the board fence of the former air college on Grenzstrasse in Dresden-Klotzsche. A new fence, about 250 meters long, was under construction in front of the dog kennel. an estimated 2,000 men were stationed there. The soldiers wore black-bordered red and black-bordered blue epaulets. Some of those with black-bordered blue epaulets had air force insignia. On 11 March, three biplanes were parked on the landing field. The planes took off for a cross country flight at 9 a.m. and landed at noon. On 15 March, 11 soldiers were painting the new fence. All of them wore black-bordered blue epaulets but eight had a wide silver stripe running across the width of their epaulets and air force insignia, 1 had a silver stripe running lengthwise on the epaulet, and the remaining 2 had yellow stripes running across the width of the epaulets. On 10 March, four groups, each of one lieutenant and 12 PM wearing black-bordered blue epaulets and air force insignia with 2 and 3 silver stripes, were observed in Klotzsche. Three biplanes were parked on the apron in front of the hangars. There was no flying before noon. Trucks were observed entering and leaving the field. *
